This is a fantastic, mostly wooded recreational property with a nice trail system. The property was recently timbered, which has created great wildlife habitat and left a trail system that reaches all corners of the property. The residual timber stand features some nice quality hardwoods for future income potential. There is the main haul road that is very accessible by vehicle and several spur roads that are perfect for ATVs or horseback riding. The terrain varies from mostly flat to a nice ridge that offers amazing views of the valley below. There are several small clearings that would make ideal secluded food plot locations to lure a mature buck. There is also the potential for building an off.
